

Master of International Business

Course Title:	Project management methodology: Quantitative concepts
Contact Hours:	20
ECTS Credits:	3

➤ DESCRIPTION AND LEARNING OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

This class is designed to introduce students to the tools and concepts of project management. Students will:

- discover the basics of how projects are selected and defined.
- be able to determine the project completion time, start and finish of each activity, cash flow requirements, and time-cost trade-offs,
- as well as develop efficient resource utilization plans to complete projects on time and within budget.

➤ TOPICS OF EACH SESSION OR SUMMARY OF THE COURSE

Session 1: Introduction and Project Culture
Session 2: Defining A Project
Session 3: Developing A Project Plan
Session 4: Managing Risks
Session 5: Project Closure
Session 6: Simulation Game

➤ EVALUATION AND GRADING

Attendance and Participation	20%
Simulation Game	20%
Group Report	20%
Comprehensive Final Exam	40%

➤ BIBLIOGRAPHY

- 1) (Required) Gray and Larson, Project Management: The Managerial Process, 5th Ed. (2011) ISBN 0073403342
- 2) (Required) HBS simulation: $12.50 for semester access